Key West R4 Fair Offers Education, Green Products and Information

Key West High School is the location for the 3rd Annual Key West R4 Fair, to be held Saturday, Nov. 14 from noon-3 p.m. The event offers fun, food, live music by Mary Spear, green product exhibits and educational games in the Key West High School courtyard and cafeteria. Admission is free.

With a focus on teaching the R4 values of Reduce, Reuse, Recycle & Rot (i.e. compost), R4 Fairs are taking place throughout the Keys this month to educate residents on sustainable living and offer a forum for community networking.

Exhibits and activities at the Key West R4 Fair include:

- Alternative Energy Vehicles
- Renewable Energy & Solar products
- Composting tools and information
- Organic produce
- Indigenous plants & orchids
- Recycling Bins & Reusable bags
- Solar ovens
- A Kids Swap (kids ages 7-11, bring up to 10 gently-used items to trade)
- Energy & Water conservation information
- Eco-friendly Cleaning Products
- Kids Games & Activities
- How to Get Rid of Junk Mail
- Toner/Printer cartridge recycling
- Silent Auction featuring a Rick Worth Rain Barrel, composting cans, and other earth friendly items
- Green Your Business & $ave
- Green Loan information
- Green Parenting
