Qualifying for a Florida Teaching Certificate College Graduate of a Non-Education Program

A graduate with a degree from an accredited or approved institution who is considering the teaching profession as a first career or a career change must first be eligible for a temporary certificate.

There are 3 ways to achieve eligibility:

- Hold a degree in an area in which Florida offers certification.
- Hold a degree in any area and a passing score on an appropriate Subject Area Exam taken after July 1, 2002.
- Hold a Bachelor's degree in any area and meet the specialization requirements through appropriate coursework

NOTE: You will apply for a Temporary Certificate. Your Statement of Status of Eligibility (SOE) will provide you with specific information about your remaining requirements for the Temporary and/or Professional Certificate.

Apply for certification through Florida Dept. of Education at <http://www.fldoe.org/edcert>
