- Approval of August SAC Minutes: Motioned to approve by Jessica Borraccino, seconded by Holli Harrington. All in favor, motion passes.
- Principal's Report – Linda Diaz
 - Thank you for a great Halloween carnival.
 - Currently focusing on looking at the days we are at school since we missed 2 hurricane days.
 - Coming up: Next week is the jogathon. November 8th is Red, White and Blue day.
 - 2nd week of December is the next progress monitoring.
 - District math lead and ELA lead came and spent a day in the classrooms and provided a lot of positive feedback. The superintendent and her team will be here on the 4th. Feedback will be shared at the Nov SAC meeting.
 - Technology for students is getting refreshed before winter break. They are being used more for assessments per State requirements.
 - Curriculum update – Kerri Worthington
 - The IXL (math) Leaderboard was so successful they are using it with ELA this month.
 - Caught reading is continuing this month.
 - PTK night had over 200 participants. 2nd and 3rd grade did a great job with their Habitat exhibits. Next PTK night is in December which is the 5th grade wax museum.
 - Friday the 1st Professional day is a learning day for teachers to dive deeper into the curriculum programs they have plus resource sessions.
- Assistant Principal's Report – Tanya Sly
 - Just finished meeting with all teachers and using feedback from the district to move forward with goal to be an A school. Next progress monitoring is in December so they can use feedback when students return after Christmas Break.
 - 2nd, 3rd, 4th afterschool small group programs have started.
 - 4th – math facts
 - 2nd and 3rd – standards that have already been taught this year
 - Clubs with Mr. Eller – will run until Thanksgiving
