- Meeting called to order by Charlene Sprinkle, SAC President at 5:37pm with the pledge of allegiance.
- May 2023 and August 2023 SAC Minutes motioned to be approved by Nicole Osborn, SAC VP. Seconded by Charlene Sprinkle, SAC President.
- Linda Diaz, Principal's Report:
  - Staffing update: School is fully staffed.
  - School Improvement Plan was approved.
  - Switlik Trust: The estate of the Switlik family has gifted our school with an endowment of $1.25 million. We will have about $70,000 each year to benefit our students, staff, and campus. Linda is seeking input from school staff, parents, and community members. Inclined to put in interest bearing account. Suggestions for use: major field trip at the end of the year, lunch-in every month.
- Sarah Adams, Assistant Principal's Report:
  - Progress Monitoring: Not much to share now, just started FAST testing. Next assessment in December.
  - New World Reading: Sign up to receive books from the State, mailed home each month (choose from 3 options).
- Chris Willis, School Counselor:
  - Attendance: 94% daily attendance rate
  - PBIS: Student of the Week, Dolphin Pride (teacher recognition), Monthly rewards with parties (i.e., movie day). Possible glow in the dark party on 11/1.
- Tanya Sly, Literacy Focus:
  - PTK Night is October 4th. Featuring 2nd grade animal habitats projects in the media center. Come for pizza and reading.
  - Afterschool tutoring: Small group tutoring for grades 2-5 is starting. 3-5 students per group, based on istation scores. Targeting bubble kids, not the bottom.
- Adjourned at 6:15pm, the next meeting scheduled for 10/25/23 in the media center.
