Agenda

1. Welcome Back —“Congratulations on the Golden School Recognition

- Best Practice—Nicole Smith
  - Nicole Smith presented a wonderful program named Snap & Read. Students can access this program on their chrome books at school and through class link at home. The program is a great reading tool for children learning English as well as those students that speak English but need guidance while reading.
  - Saturday School is ongoing 9 am – 11 am
  - Grade Boosters for 6-8 going on Tuesday & Thursday after school
- Norms, Minutes
- Elect Officers (President, Vice President, Secretary)
  - President: Jaime Cates
  - Vice President: Joyce Milleli
  - Secretary: Ileana Garcia
- School wide Theme--“Heroes on Board...!”
- Start with Hello Campaign and Week September 23rd-27th
  - This Campaign stand for Student against Violence Everywhere. This week the school has activities teaching the students to start with Hello when they see someone that looks like they need a friend.
- Dads and Families take your child to school day—September 25th (Dress like a hero or superhero)
  - Children can bring their dads, grandfather, uncle or anyone else that is special to the child. There will be activities all over the school.

- Safety and Security Update—Lanyards
  - Students are required to wear lanyards every day. The student use the lanyards to check out books and receive Buc Bucs. In the future, they will also be able to pay for lunch with the ID card. If they are lost, the cost is $5 to replace.
  - Police officers will be part of SAC meeting incase parents have safety questions.
  - The offsite drill went well
  - The fire department has donated cut up pieces of hose which we can put on the top spring f the door to lock it or as added security. It works Amanzing!
- School Improvement Plan—ELA/Lowest 25% in Reading/Achievement Gaps
  - We need to make gains in this area
- Progress Monitoring—STAR, FSA, and EOC reports and progress reports sent home
  - Reports went out last Tuesday
- Bus drivers for field trips and athletic events
  - We are in desperate need of bus drivers. School is willing to pay employee to get CDL license.
