Physical basketball games are not new to the Horace O'Bryant Buccaneers, especially when they play the Marathon

Dolphins. Sometimes, however, that physical play can lead to a player missing time, either through foul trouble or injury.

Thursday night, in the Buccaneer gym, the home team lost its leading scorer and ball-handler to a wrist injury before halftime and needed other players to step up. They did. Using stifling defense and contributions from Jaila Hicks(8 points), Amiah Marston(9 points) and Colleen Barter(4 points), the Bucs pulled away to an easy 22-8 win.

The boys game also displayed some physical play, and even had some drama when Marathon narrowed the Bucs lead just after halftime to 5 points. Once the foul-plagued James Osborne was re-inserted into the game, though, order was restored. Osborne took over the game in the latter half of the third with 8 quick points and the Bucs coasted the rest of the way. The final score was 31-24.

Both teams return to action next Tuesday on their home floor when they host the Basilica School. The girls will play first starting at 5pm.
