HORACE O'BRYANT SCHOOL
KEY WEST

HOB took on Belen Jesuit last Thursday evening at the new Key West High School stadium in front of a full house. It was the championship game of the Tri-County football conference with the league Commissioner in attendance. Unfortunately, it was the Belen Wolverines who came out on top 21-6.

There was a great deal of success for the Buccaneers and much to be proud of. It was the third season in the powerful league and the third trip to the championship for the only public school and only Monroe County school in the top division.

Home games were more like a high school game than a small-town middle school and it was the hard work of Coach Dave Van Loon and his staff that put the talented group of players in position to compete.

Many thanks go out to the Cheer and Buccanette squads and the selfless volunteers that helped put on the incredible show.

The Bucs will be back!

CANDY WRAPPER CHALLENGE

Who's ready for a little competition??

Elementary vs Middle school students are competing to bring in the most weight in candy wrappers.

Ms. Melon & Mr. Poffenberger are partnering up with MOTE & LMC to collect candy wrappers to be recycled properly.

Students can bring in their wrappers until Friday, November 5th.

Help reduce waste that enters our ecosystem and win recycling bragging rights!

All students must comply with the HOB Dress Code Policy.

Here are a few reminders:

- Shirts may be any color or pattern but may not have inappropriate words, logos or pictures.
- No tank tops, blouses with thin straps, or tops that reveal bare midriffs or backs (even underneath jackets).
- Tops that are see-through material must have a wide-strapped tank top underneath that covers the entire torso including the midriff.
 - Dress Code also applies to clothing worn in pictures.
- Students may not change into clothing that does not comply with Dress Code to take pictures.

Due to CDC Guidelines and precaution of spreading germs, there will be no paper envelopes this year. You may pre-pay at www.HJMIAMIPHOTO.com.
