READERS ARE LEADERS

Readers are Leaders can feel Fall in the Air! Students K-3 are creating their own Leaf Man, based on the book by Lois Ehlert. And, ironically, I am picking up a lot of trash that Ian deposited near the back gate. Which is our Ecological thought for the week. Take a moment to perhaps canvas the neighborhood for items that may have washed up.

Looking for a Good Book?

4th and 5th graders are creating Book Ads for their favorite books. Other students, and adults, can look through their suggestions to help pick out a great new book.

The Going Batty Challenge continues for the rest of the month. 1st and 2nd read 3 picture books and 3rd – 5th have the month of October to read and pass a chapter book at their Independent Reading Level. Kindergarten will be starting their first challenge in November, keep watching the Newsletter.

Thank you to my Volunteers!!! What would I do without you?

PKS UNITES AGAINST BULLYING

PKS Ocean Guardians Club

To further celebrate the 50th anniversary of the National Marine Sanctuary Foundation, PKS Ocean Guardians passed out 50 challenges to fellow students. Each challenge was a pledge to change one small thing in their lives that would make a difference for our planet. Ocean Guardians were proud to see so many PKS Panthers happily agreeing to take on a challenge.
