

*Celebrate Literacy Week,
Florida!*

January 23-27, 2023

District: Monroe
Coral Shores High School

Monday,
January 23rd

Mystery book during announcements; winners will get a prize.

Library Escape Room during lunches or sending a group of students at a time through a sign-up sheet.

Literacy Week banner competition. *Banners must be turned in by Monday 1/23 to Mrs. Haddad for judging.* Winners will be announced on Tuesday. Winning class will get a treat with an assortment of snacks.

Literacy Week Warm-Up Slide *Make a copy and change any of the daily activities if you'd like.*

Tuesday,
January 24th

Mystery book during announcements; winners will get a prize.

*In classrooms* Country Virtual Field Trip- teachers are invited to have their classes participate in a class virtual field trip. Students can choose the country they would like to visit and complete a one pager with the components chosen.

Here is a link to a digital one pager.

Science theme Kahoot during lunches.

Wednesday, January 25th	Mystery book during announcements; winners will get a prize The “Art of Poetry” activity during lunches. Students will come to the Media Center and read several ocean theme poems. Then, they will choose their favorite poem and create an art piece based on their interpretation.
Thursday, January 26th	Mystery book during announcements; winners will get a prize Outdoor book reading- classes are invited to go outside and enjoy reading a good book in the environment (weather permitting). Science theme Kahoot during lunches.
Friday, January 27th	Mystery book during announcements; winners will get a prize Local author Rick Chesler will come to present and do an interview with our students. *There will be a google meet for the classes that would like to attend virtually. *