Recently, students from our ACCESS program were given the opportunity to tour the ACCESS program at the College of the Florida Keys. We had a wonderful day seeing the different programs the college has to offer. Thank you CFK for the informative tour and all your hospitality!

Paula Mercer won the first ever Ed Lange Legal Professional and Service award, which honors the work that coaches of trial teams do to encourage and coach students to not only peruse legal careers, but to reach their full potential as students, professionals, and human beings.

Paula was nominated by the team, and the competition directors chose the winner based on recommendations that the team wrote. This shows how much respect and appreciation that the students have for all of the hard work that Paula puts into ensuring that the students have a successful experience!! Way to go, Mrs. Mercer!!

The KWHHS Mock Trial Team along with their amazing sponsor, Paula Mercer travelled to Orlando to compete in the Florida High School Mock Trial State Competition on Thursday March 27-Sunday March 30, 2025.

The competition took place at the Orange County Court house, where the team argued four rounds as either the prosecution or defense in the case State of Florida v. Cohen Grey involving the crimes of Grand Theft, Fraud, and Conspiracy to Commit Forgery of a priceless piece of art called The Steps of the Chapel Rhone . There were 18 teams from every judicial district in Florida.

As a newer trial team, they did not rank in the top 5 but they were certainly strong competition due to the effective coaching by local public defenders Blake Shillinger and Adreanah Eberly and state prosecutor Colleen Dunne.

In the end, the team won the Team Professionalism Award for outstanding professionalism and ethical conduct and personified Conch Pride!! We are so proud of our Conchs!!

Please congratulate and wish them luck on bringing home a state title to the following 9 FSPA All Florida Selections! These students are finalists and the top 5% of the state... The overall winners will be announced next weekend:
