Principal Report

Lisa Taylor

- Budget meeting – everything good
- Enrollment is down right now
 - If you know someone with a child who will be 5 before September, please tell them to register now
 - They can attend Kindergarten Round Up
 - Helps us plan teachers for next year
 - Current enrollment 538
 - VPK not included
 - Open Enrollment until April 15th
- Security Team send to Upper Keys on April 10th
 - No one knew what school
 - PKS was prepared but they went to Coral Shores
 - Check for locked doors, make sure all safety rules are being followed
 - Check paperwork is done

- Speak with front desk and Officer Mercy
- Had a fire drill April 11th
 - 1 Student not where they were supposed to be
 - Not doing anything wrong – was walking somewhere when the drill happened
 - Teachers used red card and everything worked just as it was supposed to
 - Child was walked to correct location
 - Teachers Hold in Place until told to exit unless they see or smell smoke

SIP

- Still with DOE

School Safety

Officer Mercy

- Fire drill very successful
- Officers will be randomly placed at the 4-Way Stop
 - Will continue to help remind parents of safety near the school
 - All warnings were given – next time will be tickets

Academic Booster

Maybe we could turn it into an afterschool activity or in school club

New clubs wanting to form next year

New Business

- Calendar Committee
 - Instead of doing 6 early release days, we are doing 3 more 3-day weekends
 - End of Term Days will still be Early Release
 - If you like to take 3 day weekends, please utilize these instead of pulling kids out of school
- Honor Roll – Why do awards start in 4th Grade?
 - Not sure, but we are actually talking about starting in 1st next year
