Sometimes I cannot participate because I am working

I don't feel the need to participate and I am busy. I am very happy with how things are being run at the moment and don't feel the need to request anything. Funding classroom learning instead of parent engagement activities or reallocate to pay teachers and staff more. Parent Engagement can be done without refreshments and paying for transportation.

I am not aware of when they occur. Perhaps more widely-circulated info would help (ex. on ClassDojo, notes in child's folder)

If I am notified in time there is no problem

Comments - by number of corresponding questions: 7. I had to beg for tutoring and finally got help 2 mornings before school. 10. Only one of my child's teachers communicates regularly! 13. SAC and PTA meeting notices are via Facebook. Other: When I call the attendance line for illness, I still get phone messages about UNEXCUSED absences. SAC/PTO should be available by zoom.

The main form of communication is on one of a few Facebook groups. There should be one group that is updated once a week with ALL the upcoming events and ongoing information. When a change is made at the SAC meetings, parents hear once and that is it.
